lately, is really finished. The journal has the largest ever printed and will make about 100 pages. The house journal will probably be as much. The session laws will be begun as soon as the senate journal is disposed of, and afterwards the house journal printed.

IN EXETER.—Through a typographical error yesterday's issue is addressed by Hennessey, Esq. to Mr. C. was made to read Tenth and Washington. Instead of Fourth and Washington. The mistake while trifling in its nature to the average reader, had more than a passing significance to the owners of property in the mistaken district.

old style pills! Who do not know what agony they caused—what we walked the floor you groaned, you a and the next day, you felt so weak you didn't want to move or speak.
Now Pierce's "Pilllets" are so mild
they are not decided by a child.
They do their work in painless way,
and leave no weakness for next day.
You're proving what is oft confused.
If gentle means are always best.
